- Make Face Masks
 - We’d like to have 100 masks at church for when we are able to return to worship, knowing that it will be important to wear them for a while when we are back together. Contact Heather to pledge masks toward our 100 (office@allsaints-madison.org / 608-335-4911), or...
 - Dane County Jail is in need of more masks for both staff and inmates. Contact Deputy Juan Bowers (284-6174 / Bowers.juan@danesherriff.com) if you are interested in making masks for the jail. He will arrange for a deputy to pick up the items, so that everyone avoids contact and stays safe, or... ○ Help make masks for those in vulnerable communities through Lutheran World Relief’s 75,000 Face Mask Challenge - lwr.org/masks
- Make t-shirt diapers or baby caps for our newborn kits – www.ghm.org/hands-on-projects
- Write letters/make phone calls - You can do some of these things on your own, or contact Heather to be a part of a more organized plan coordinated by Karen Julesburg! - (office@allsaints-madison.org / 608-335-4911)
 - to your Christmas card list,
 - to workers on the front lines – doctors, nurses, grocery store workers, truckers, sanitation workers, mail carriers
 - to small businesses you love and can’t wait to support again
 - to those faces at church that you can’t wait to see again
- Pray – for our world, our community, our church, all affected in any way by the virus
